As President, Chris Powell is responsible for the overall day-to-day operational performance and leadership of Precyse, including implementing strategic operational plans to advance the company's mission and financial and non-financial objectives. He is also responsible for operations, service delivery, sales, marketing, finance and information technology and is a member of the organization's Executive Council. Reporting to Precyse Chairman, Chief Executive Officer and founder Jeffrey Levitt, Mr. Powell leads the efforts to evolve the company along the path to a sophisticated technology-enhanced services model, including focus on product development and commercialization and engagement in merger and acquisition and channel partnership opportunities as they arise.

Previously, Mr. Powell worked for GE Healthcare as Vice President and General Manager of GE Healthcare Americas Commercial Healthcare IT business, including the United States, Canada and Central and South America. Prior to GE, he worked at IDX Systems Corporation, which was then acquired by GE Healthcare in 2006. During his 14-year tenure with IDX, Mr. Powell served various senior leadership roles. Prior to IDX, he started his career as a Sales Representative at IBM Corporation, where he worked for five years.

A graduate of Colby College in Waterville, Maine, Mr. Powell holds a B.S. degree in Psychology.
